HURTWOOD HOUSE

ECONOMICS

Hurtwood House is looking for an enthusiastic and dynamic teacher to join a strong A Level Economics team in September 2020. With a 100% record of success in external examinations and a 95% A* - C success rate at A Level last June, it is a high achieving department looking to build on its success. The department has the full backing of the management and enjoys excellent resources and funding. The teaching team consists of three full-time members of staff and there are close links maintained with the Business and Accounting teams. A candidate who would be able to offer A Level Business, in addition to Economics, would be at a significant advantage in the recruitment process.

TEACHING

Class sizes are small; the groups are not streamed and are of mixed ability. The department adopts a seminar-style approach to teaching and places a great deal of emphasis on ensuring the students acquire the knowledge and analytical skills necessary for A Level. Much importance is placed not only on the understanding of Economics concepts and techniques but also on the ability of each student to apply these to real-world scenarios and case studies. The quality of delivery in the classroom is vital and the foundation for this is the knowledge and experience of the teachers themselves. Contact time with students is six hours per week and support outside of lesson time is regarded as an essential supplement. Students are encouraged to participate in extracurricular events such as the 'Chance to be Chancellor' competition and the IEA Budget Challenge. Regular overseas trips provide the opportunity for students to broaden their understanding of other markets and economic contexts.

SPECIFICATION

The department follows the EdExcel Economics specification at A Level.

HURTWOOD HOUSE

BOARDING AND PASTORAL

As a fully residential school our primary concern is to provide students with a safe, structured, caring and happy community. That is why we place so much emphasis on our House structure.

Students board in one of five country houses or their lodges, some of which are on the campus and some nearby. Each House has a Housemaster or Housemistress (HsM) who lives in and a team of House Tutors. The HsM is the link between the school, the student and parents and is the first point of contact on all academic and pastoral matters. The House staff are responsible for looking after the students, for monitoring academic progress, for providing guidance and for creating a warm, supportive and organised family unit and what we like to think of as a sense of 'structured informality'. All full-time staff are assigned to one of the boarding houses as academic tutors who take responsibility for a small tutor group, meeting them on a Monday evening. Some staff are full tutors who assist the HsM in the running of the boarding environment by doing evening and weekend duties in the House. An additional allowance is paid for these duties.

All of the working day is spent on campus and students are transported back to their House after supper every evening by the House staff. Main meals are taken on campus in our award winning 'refectory' building where the food is healthy, wholesome and there is a wide choice to satisfy all dietary requirements. It is all freshly prepared on the premises by our own staff. There are also kitchen facilities in every House for snacks, tea and coffee etc, games rooms and communal TV rooms. All Houses have internet access and a wireless LAN.

Joining the Hurtwood pastoral team offers opportunities to:

- Work with students outside of the classroom, building long-lasting, productive relationships
- Become part of the hard-working and dedicated tutor teams who run the boarding houses
- Help students prepare for the independence of life at university, drama school or art college
- Become fully involved in the busy and exciting extracurricular life of the school
